

Cabin rental: Reindeer Lodge

Scenic cabin accommodation nestled in the taiga forest at the banks of river Torne just outside Jukkasjärvi village. Savour the moment of silence, cosy up to the fireplace and unwind from everyday life. With wide open spaces this small-scale facility offers an ideal base for your Swedish Lapland summer getaway.

Reindeer Lodge comprises five wooden double bed cabins in Sámi design. Each cabin is one large room á 20 m². Four out of five cabins are also furnished with a sofa bed (size 1.60 x 1.80 m), so up to one more adult with child; or two more children respectively fit in there.

The cabins are equipped with wood-fired stoves and electrical heaters, fridges, tables, and chairs. A common timber log building serves as a joint self-catering facility with fully equipped kitchen, stove, and seating. A barbecue site with grill is found on spot too. The joint single-sex shower and dressing compartments as well as WCs are found in separate communal facilities.

Breakfast will be prepared by the host, so you have a good start of the day.

Reindeer Lodge offers an excellent starting point for walks in the forest. Take a swim in the nearby creek or pick some berries. In the village of Jukkasjärvi you can visit the church, Icehotel 365, and the Sámi open-air museum Márkanbáiki. Do not miss tasting smoked reindeer meat and drinking fresh boiled coffee in Café Sápmi.

During summer Reindeer Lodge is used for accommodation only, thus some of the reindeer that roam here in the winter, are now grazing at Márkanbáiki.

Reindeer Lodge is perfect for travellers by car who look for an accommodation off-the-beaten track, yet still easily accessible; situated only 15 km from Kiruna Airport and 3 km outside Jukkasjärvi village.
