Cabin accommodation at Reindeer Lodge

Stay in our idyllic cabins outside Jukkasjärvi village and get closer to nature. Nestled in the forest and on the banks of the river Torne, this small-scale facility with plenty of space offers an ideal base for your Swedish Lapland getaway.

Reindeer Lodge comprises among others, five wooden double bed cabins in Sámi design. Each cabin is one large room á 20 m². Four out of five cabins are also furnished with a sofa bed (size 1.60 x 1.80 m), so up to one more adult with child, alternatively two children fit in there. Each cabin is equipped with wood-fired stove and electrical heaters, fridge, table, and chairs.

Toilet, shower/sauna and self-catering kitchen are located in separate shared facilities a few meters from the cabins. Breakfast is served in a log cabin that serves as a breakfast room and houses a fully equipped self-catering kitchen for those who want to cook their own food, a barbecue site is adjacent too.

The sanitary areas include bathrooms with WC, single-sex shower and changing rooms and a wood-fired, mixed sauna.

Make the most out of your stay by exploring the surroundings during a forest walk, by swimming in the nearby creek or berry picking, and enjoying the silence that rules supreme. In the summer it is bright day and night and in autumn when the nights get darker there is a chance to see the northern lights.

In Jukkasjärvi village you can visit the church, Icehotel 365 and the open-air museum Márkanbáiki. Do not miss dropping by Café Sápmi if you want to taste smoked reindeer meat and have a good coffee.

During spring, summer and autumn there are no reindeer residing at Reindeer Lodge due to natural reasons, but you are welcome to see some of them at Márkanbáiki (from 6 June) – Reindeer Lodge guests have free museum admission.

Reindeer Lodge is perfect for travellers by car who look for an accommodation off-the-beaten track, yet still easily accessible; situated only 15 km from Kiruna Airport and 3 km outside Jukkasjärvi village. We offer scheduled check-in/out transfer with minibus against supplement.
